A Letter to My Future Spouse

Include all the following and identify it by the corresponding number.

1. What fun do you hope to have together? 2. What are things you hope to accomplish together? Goals? Family? 3. What do you hope your elderly years together will be like? 4. What if one of you becomes seriously sick or has a chronic illness? 5. What type of characteristics and virtues do you hope they have that will enable them to do and be all of these things? What about God? 6. What are you doing now to make all this possible? What do you hope they are doing now to make all this possible? 7. What will you not do now, to avoid making this all difficult to achieve? What are you hoping they are not doing now, which would be an obstacle to this life? 8. What do you hope others will say about your marriage?
9. Any last words to the future love of your life?

Write nothing personal which would identify yourself or another!
