Day 27: The Challenge of Appreciating the Beauty in the Faces of Other Persons

Prompt: "The eyes are the windows to the soul." "No one can know what it cost a person to earn his or her face." Think of people's eyes, the gentleness of their facial expressions, think of what makes a face happy, joyful, tired, shrewd or troubled. How does the visible reflect the invisible?

Assignment for Today

I would like you to choose one of your journal entries that you think is a great representation of your personality that would give me insight into who you are as a person. Please take your time in considering which journal to share, and be certain to list the journal title in the Way of Love, Step by Step.

Please write (copy) it on the lines provided on the back of this sheet. You may want to take this opportunity to enhance your journal entry, making it clearer or adding detail. Obviously, do not include anything too private or personal; also, print or write legibly (clear and readable).

As I stated in class, Dr. Ronda would love to read a selected number (dozen) of these journal entries you are sharing with me. You are the only high school age young adults that work through her journal format, and she is always glad to read them. That request is totally optional. Please check one of the two boxes indicating your preference....no questions asked!

- You may share my journal entry with Dr. Ronda.
- Please do not share my journal entry with Dr. Ronda.
