4. What feast was 'at hand' (about to be celebrated) when the Bread of Life discourse took place?

---

5. Why did Jesus ask Philip, "How are we to buy bread" to feed the people?

---

6. What did the people call Jesus, or refer to Him as, after he multiplied the five barley loaves and two fish?

---

7. Many Protestants who do not hold any doctrine of a 'real presence', refer to the verse, "The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life" as meaning that Jesus' words about "eating His flesh and drinking His blood" were just figurative. Considering what happened immediately after that verse, why should we not consider that phrase to be Jesus' explanation that He was only speaking figuratively?
