

Theology III

Quiz 04-4QTR

May 21, 2015

Covered: Culture and Catholic Life

True/False

- F 1. Culture is rooted in what people say what it is.
- T 2. Teaching that is not dogmatic is teaching relative truth.
- F 3. G.K. Chesterton said education is an object, that conveys values and qualities.
- T 4. One of the problems with the 'modern' view of the world, is that it cannot offer a universal context for human life.
- T 5. C.S Lewis argued that modern education is propagation.
- T 6. Modesty is to control sexual arousal in another, or one's self.
- T 7. Modern subjective values understanding 'gender' as a construct.
- F 8. Montaigne's statement, Que sais-je? (What do I know) meant that man must answer that question and reach a judgment.

Multiple Choice

- 9. G.K. Chesterton stated that there has never been a golden age, but that today...
 - C a. Man has lost his beginning. c. Man has lost his address.
 - b. Man has lost his direction. d. Man has lost his understanding.
- 10. In the 'modern' notion of the world, by asking "How can I use this" refers to...
 - D a. Intrinsic value. c. Nominalist value.
 - b. Inclusive value. d. Instrumental value.
- 11. Today's progress in science and technology can foster this of everything else...
 - D a. Nominalism. c. Empiricism.
 - b. Atheism. d. Agnosticism.
- 12. As Faith and Reason are seen as opposites in the modern era, this represents the understanding that in order to believe something, it must be scientifically proven.
 - D a. Skepticism. c. Nominalism.
 - b. Rationalism. d. Empiricism.

13. When C.S. Lewis said that modern man removes the organ and demands the function, he means...

- A a. Man mocks honor, but is shocked by people being traitors.
- b. Man has become too cerebral, so honor seems less prominent.
- c. Man mocks people being traitors, because they hold honor so high.
- d. Man has become unable to control the organ that represents honor.

Multiple Response

14. The Enlightenment believed that man needed to be freed from...

- AD a. Superstition. c. Vocation.
- b. Reason. d. Religion.

15. Both of the social-psychologists Hunsberger and Altemeyer claimed that atheist parents are reluctant to impose their atheism on their children, as they wanted them to make up their own minds. This agrees with the modern understanding of

- BD a. Intrinsic value. c. Realism.
- b. Skepticism. d. Ideology.

16. These preserve and enshrine 'justified true beliefs' of family and civic community.

- BD a. Principles. c. Institutions.
- b. Rituals. d. Knowledge.

Matching

- a. Incarnate. e. Discriminate.
- b. Positive Law. ab. Realism.
- c. Culture. ac. Nones.
- d. Natural Law. ad. Bucket List.

- C 17. This is used to bring the world under man's control.
- B 18. In the modern world, this has replaced the individual conscience.
- D 19. Traditionally, this was known to govern the human person.
- AD 20. This would be contrary to the traditional notion of self-sacrifice.
- AC 21. These people are not atheists, but rather don't identify with any belief tradition.
- AB 22. This traditional understanding of things opposes Nominalism.