

Theology III

Quiz 04-4QTR

May 21, 2015

Covered: Culture and Catholic Life

True/False

- T 1. Culture is rooted in nature.
- F 2. Teaching that is dogmatic is teaching relative truth.
- T 3. G.K. Chesterton said education is not an object, but conveys values and qualities.
- T 4. Gaudium et spes claims that only through culture, man may come to a true and full humanity.
- F 5. C.S Lewis argued that modern education is merely propaganda.
- T 6. An open mind, says C.S. Lewis is useful when considering finite things.
- T 7. Modern subjective values understanding 'gender' as a construct.
- T 8. Montaigne's statement, Que sais-je? (What do I know) meant that man cannot answer that question and must not judge.

Multiple Choice

- 9. To say that there is a truth independent of any personal views, is to say truth is...
 - B a. Subjective. c. Knowable.
 - b. Objective. d. Inclusive.
- 10. G.K. Chesterton stated that there has never been a golden age, but that today...
 - C a. Man has lost his beginning. c. Man has lost his address.
 - b. Man has lost his direction. d. Man has lost his understanding.
- 11. In the 'modern' notion of the world, by asking "How can I use this" refers to...
 - D a. Intrinsic value. c. Nominalist value.
 - b. Inclusive value. d. Instrumental value.
- 12. As Faith and Reason are seen as opposites in the modern era, this represents the understanding that in order to believe something, it must be scientifically proven.
 - D a. Skepticism. c. Nominalism.
 - b. Rationalism. d. Empiricism.

13. When C.S. Lewis said that modern man removes the organ and demands the function, he means...

- A
- a. Man mocks honor, but is shocked by people being traitors.
 - b. Man has become too cerebral, so honor seems less prominent.
 - c. Man mocks people being traitors, because they hold honor so high.
 - d. Man has become unable to control the organ that represents honor.

Multiple Response

14. The Enlightenment believed that man needed to be freed from...

- AD
- a. Superstition.
 - b. Reason.
 - c. Vocation.
 - d. Religion.

15. C.S Lewis affirmed that education has as its goals which two of the following?

- AD
- a. Self-discipline.
 - b. Prestige.
 - c. Propaganda.
 - d. Virtue.

16. Both of the social-psychologists Hunsberger and Altemeyer claimed that atheist parents are reluctant to impose their atheism on their children, as they wanted them to make up their own minds. This agrees with the modern understanding of

- BD
- a. Intrinsic value.
 - b. Skepticism.
 - c. Realism.
 - d. Ideology.

Matching

- a. Incarnate.
 - b. Positive Law.
 - c. Culture.
 - d. Natural Law.
 - e. Discriminate.
 - ab. Realism.
 - ac. Nones.
 - ad. Bucket List.
- E 17. This is necessary to do in order to reach a judgment.
- B 18. In the modern world, this has replaced the individual conscience.
- D 19. Traditionally, this was known to govern the human person.
- AD 20. This would be contrary to the traditional notion of self-sacrifice.
- AC 21. These people are not atheists, but rather don't identify with any belief tradition.
- AB 22. René Descartes challenged this understanding of the human person.